

FINAL TEST

Use Saxon Genitive in the following expressions:

The paw of the cat
The hat of the President
The TV of my brother
The legs of the horse
The house of John
The chairs of the girls
The shop of Elvis
The clothes of the boy
The songs of the Smiths
The shop of the baker

Use in, on, between, in front of, opposite, next to, below, behind, over, around, to complete the sentences:

I live _____ in New York
My keys are _____ the table
My house is _____ yours, I can see it from my window
I hate when dogs run _____ your legs making noise. I am afraid I can fall
The apples are _____ the dishes in the wardrobe, apples are in the second shelf and the dishes are in the top shelf
I prefer the book _____ that you are touching
The person _____ me in the queue enters before me and the person _____ me in the queue enters after me. I am _____ them

Use there is/are with some/any and prepositions using the cues to describe the contents of the refrigerator:

0 (eggs, in)
There are some bottles in the fridge

1 (cheese, between)

2 (tomatoes, below)

3 (butter, on front of)

4 (orange juice, next to)

5 (milk, over)

Use must / mustn't to express the rules:

You _____ smoke on a restaurant.

Students _____ study for the exams

You _____ wash your hands before meals

Children _____ drink wine

People _____ make noise in a library

People _____ treat well their pets

Make a text describing your computer class, making clear where are all the computers, furniture, use the place prepositions etc... No less than five lines.