QUINCENA 2 - PIRATES

ORAL PRACTICE - Telling a pirate story

You are going to tell the story of Captain Robert Kitch, a fictional pirate. You must follow the sequence of events described in the pictures and tell the story using the Past Tense. Also remember to use the linkers you have learned in the unit (then, when, after that, because, etc.) to give coherence to your words.

Here you have some ideas and vocabulary to help you with the story. But you may add anything you want, including an ending for the story or as many data and details as you can invent:

1643 Robert Kitch / born / poor family father / retired sailor
two brothers

1658 Join / crew / "Queen Charlotte" (pirate ship) meet / Captain Horn (famous pirate) save / Horn's life / sea battle

1674 Horn / die
Kitch / lose / hand
Kitch / become / captain of "Queen Charlotte" famous and rich

1680 Spanish soldiers / capture / Kitch imprison / island of Faro sentence / death

1682 Helen Baker (female pirate) / attack / island rescue / Kitch
Fall in love/

1685 Kitch and Baker / get married sail / seven seas
lot of adventures
